ENGLISH FOR DIRECT ENTRY (EDE)

ECA's English for Direct Entry is a two-level 20-week program for students preparing for tertiary education. Level 1 is a 12-week full time program (25 hours per week) and Level 2 is an 8-week program of 20 hours per week (160 hours).

Level 1 consists of 10 one-week modules and two weeks of assessment. In this level, learners will be introduced to a range of academic genres and the cultural context of language and it is a foundation for the second level.

Level 2 focuses on:

- a) Field-specific language and communication skills
- b) Research skills, and
- c) Preparation of research papers.

The course has been developed for students who wish to have a thorough preparation for higher education studies, not only in terms of English language proficiency, but also in understanding the cultural context in which their learning will take place and be assessed.

Students seeking entry to university will normally be required to complete levels 1 & 2. Students seeking entry to vocational education will normally be required to complete level 1.

Entry Pre-requisites

Students will be required to take an entry test, or provide evidence of results from a recognised English test e.g. IELTS, TOEIC, TOEFL.

Students will be at least 18 years old and will be intending to undertake tertiary study within 12 months of completing their English course.

Successful completion of EDE will provide students with direct entry to selected higher education institutions. Please visit our website for the list of institutions and courses.

English Programs for Young Learners

HIGH SCHOOL PREPARATION

This is a three-stage program combining General English and preparation for high school for students aged between 13 and 17 years of age. In the first stage, students focus on building their General English language skills. Midway through the course students begin high school studies in Mathematics, Science and Australian studies as a component of their English language course. During the second half of the program students also become familiar with Australian high schools through special lessons and visits to local schools.

A high school placement service is available if required.
